

Mohit in Applause Entertainment's Bhaukaal

Mohit Raina in a still from the series

Appause Entertainment, the content studio from the Aditya Birla Group, together with Baweja Movies, brings to the table the next cutting-edge crime drama series titled Bhaukaal. Inspired by the journey of Navniet Sekera, an IPS officer who brought down the organised crime syndicates in Muzzaffarnagar in the early 2000s. Bhaukaal is a local slang used in Uttar Pradesh that means impressive and robust.

The series will be headlined by television superstar Mohit Raina, who is hot off the success of Uri - The Surgical Strike, and the series 21 Sarfarosh - Saragarhi 1897. Actor and producer Harman Baweja, has teamed up with director Jatin Wagle for this gripping narrative. Abhimanyu Singh, Siddhanth Kapoor, Bidita Bag, Sunny Hinduja, Rashmi Rajput, Pradeep Nagar and Gulki Joshi also play key characters on the show which is written by Akash Mohimen, Jay Bansal and Rohit Chauhan.

Speaking about the series, Sameer Nair, CEO Applause Entertainment said, "Bhaukaal captures the thrill and drama of law and order tackling crime in a localised context. With Bhaukaal, we bring an edgy, crime saga for the Indian audience. Mohit Raina is an extremely talented actor and adds heft and muscle to his character."

Sameer Nair

Harman Baweja

Producer and show-runner Harman Baweja adds, "I've always wanted to create a show that flips how we perceive the real world and Sekera's story is just that—unapologetic, compelling and inspiring."

Speaking about his role, Mohit Raina said, "Bhaukaal gives me a chance to play a brave police officer, who broke through the age-old criminal and local political nexus. I am very excited to play this character, under the expertise of Sameer Nair and Harman Baweja."

Applause Entertainment continues to raise the bar on original Indian digital content with each of its fresh and exciting new series.